Relevant features

Incorporates the replay function: this function is available on all models and series, so there are fewer codes to manage; you can clone a BFT remote control simply and quickly. You can even do so remotely from your office.

Remote controls can be programmed using an app: insert a remote control into the BFT receiver and the task is now quick and easy: you can insert and also program the remote control without being near to the receiver. A solution which saves you time.

The four-button, multi-channel remote control: the four-button model can handle up to 8 channels, thanks to the special key combinations. With a single remote control, you can control all of the automation systems in your home.

Radio transmission with encryption technology: with the new radio protocol, data is transmitted using a rolling code system and, in addition, this code is masked first with a sophisticated encryption key
